

ZiF WORKSHOP

Studying Migration Policies at the Interface between Empirical Research and Normative Analysis

Convenors: Matthias Hoesch (Münster)
Lena Laube (Bonn)

10 – 12 September 2018

Center for Interdisciplinary Research (ZiF), Bielefeld

IN COOPERATION WITH:

Religion und Politik
EXZELLENZCLUSTER | WWU MÜNSTER

forum
internationale
wissenschaft
bonn

MONDAY, 10 SEPTEMBER

PLENARY SESSIONS

9:00 – 11:00 Welcome address by ZiF and convenors

Lecture I: Joseph Carens (Toronto) / Veit Bader (Amsterdam)

› On the relationship between normative claims and empirical realities in immigration ‹

Comment: Christof Roos (Flensburg)

11:00 – 13:00 Lecture II: Ayelet Shachar (Göttingen)

› Global inequalities in access to territory and membership ‹

Comment: Anja Weiß (Duisburg-Essen)

13:00 – 14:00 Lunch Break (ZiF Cafeteria)

PANEL SESSIONS

14:30 – 17:45 Panel 1

Critical migration studies, normative convictions and empirical research

Chair: Olaf Kleist (Osnabrück)

Discussant: Matthias Hoesch

Papers:

- » Alisha Heinemann (Vienna): Deutschkurse zwischen staatlicher Kontrolle und Selbstermächtigung
- » Steffania Maffei (Berlin): Migrationskämpfe als demokratische Herausforderungen und als Subjektivierungsprozesse. Sozialphilosophische und -wissenschaftliche Überlegungen
- » Verena Risse (Dortmund): Recent deviations in border control practices – new challenges for normative strategies of justification?
- » Helge Schwiertz (Osnabrück): Radical democracy and struggles of migration: A dialogue of theory and practice

Panel 2

Normative frames of political actors on migration and asylum

Chair: Christof Roos (Flensburg)

Discussant: Veit Bader (Amsterdam)

Papers:

- » Kim Bräuer-Zeltner (Braunschweig): Begegnung auf Augenhöhe!? Zur Bedeutung und Verschränkung von normativen Annahmen in der Interaktion von Geflüchteten und Helfer*innen der Flüchtlingshilfe
- » Andreas Kewes (Siegen): Evidenzgewissheit und die Affirmationen normativer Überzeugungen in der frühen deutschen Flüchtlingsbewegung
- » Nicolas Kleinschmidt (Aachen) / Jessica Krüger (Hamburg): The role of Entscheider in the asylum procedure: a legal, psychological and ethical analysis
- » Christof Roos (Flensburg): The conditionality of EU freedom of movement: normative change in the discourse of EU actors
- » Nausikaa Schirilla (Freiburg): Studying refugee solidarity as an 'ethics from below'

18:00 Dinner (ZiF Cafeteria)

19:00 Come together (Fellow room)

TUESDAY, 11 SEPTEMBER

PLENARY SESSIONS

9:00 – 11:00 Lecture III: Sandra Lavenex (Geneva)

› Should empirical migration studies take a normative stance? ‹

Comment: Joachim Wündisch (Düsseldorf)

11:00 – 13:00 Lecture IV: William Walters (Ottawa)

› Mapping deportation: ethics, politics, publics ‹

Comment: Anna Goppel (Bern)

13:00 – 14:30 Lunch Break (ZiF Cafeteria)

PANEL SESSIONS

14:30 – 17:45 Panel 3

The EU border regime and asylum politics: fairness against refugees and fairness amongst states

Chair: Matthias Hoesch (Münster)/Nicolas Kleinschmidt (Aachen)

Discussant: Matthias Hoesch (Münster)

Papers:

» Lukasz Dziejcz (Tilburg): Justice between states and justice towards refugees – Finding reconciliation

» Johanna Günther (Berlin): Why comply? The impact of judgments of the European Court of Human Rights on the asylum and migration policies of the European Union

» Nicole Hoellerer (Exeter): Fair and consistent asylum adjudication in Europe? – Preliminary findings from a critical, interdisciplinary study of asylum appeals in European courts

» Johannes Servan (Bergen): 'What justice requires' – state-centric and cosmopolitan perspectives on priority criteria in resettlement policies

Panel 4

The ethics of return and deportation

Chair: Mollie Gerver (Essex)

Discussant: Susanne U. Schultz (Bielefeld)

Papers:

» Rutger Birnie (Fiesole): The ethics of resisting deportations

» Derek Denman (Göttingen): Targeting sanctuary: U.S. Immigration Enforcement as political retaliation

» Mollie Gerver (Essex): Ethical refugee repatriation

19:00

Conference dinner (Brauhaus Joh. Albrecht, Hagenbruchstraße 8, 33602 Bielefeld)

WEDNESDAY, 12 SEPTEMBER
PANEL SESSIONS

9:00 – 11:00

Panel 5

Exploring the paths from immigration to membership: observing and problematizing inequalities within citizenship

Chair: Lucy Pedroza (Berlin)

Discussant: Mollie Gerver (Essex)

Papers:

- » Camille Pascal (Louvain-la-Neuve): Right to vote: does residence matter for epistemic reasons?
- » Lucy Pedroza (Berlin): A framework to study comprehensive migration policies
- » Samuel Schmid (Florence): Open borders versus inclusive citizenship? How Germany defies and darkens empirical assumptions in immigration ethics

Panel 6

Global inequalities, the birthright lottery, and border control

Chair: Lena Laube (Bonn)

Discussant: Andreas Cassee (Bern)

Papers:

- » Eszter Kollár (Leuven): Reconciling Self-determination and Global Equality of Opportunity: 'People Relationship Goods', the Right to Exclude and the Duty to Include
- » Stefan Schlegel (Göttingen): Ticket to ride – The property right over migration as the entity of analysis to map the allocation and transaction of access to institutions
- » Anja Weiß (Duisburg-Essen): Socio-spatial autonomy and the system of nation-states

PLENARY SESSION

11:30 – 13:00

Lecture V: David Miller (Oxford)

› Our Responsibilities to Refugees ‹

Comment: Olaf Kleist (Osnabrück)

13:00 – 14:00

Snack and lunch packages (ZiF Cafeteria)